INFORMATION FOR AUTHORS

THE AMERICAN ANTHROPOLOGIST publishes original articles in the entire field of anthropology whether or not the author is a member of the American Anthropological Association.

Contributions should be typewritten on standard 8½ x 11 inch paper, double spaced, and on one side of the paper only. Footnote references and bibliographies should follow standard form. Footnote references should be by author and date only, as:

MEAD, 1939, p. 200.

Works cited are to be placed in a bibliography at the end of the article, in alphabetical and calendrical order, as, for books:

LINTON, RALPH
1945 The Cultural Background of Personality. D. Appleton Century Co., New York.

For citations from journals:

MEAD, MARGARET
1939 Native Languages as Field-work Tools. American Anthropologist, n.s., Vol. 41, No. 2, pp. 189-205.

Galley proof only will be sent to authors, and lengthy or unusual changes therein may be charged to the author. Illustrations must be kept to a minimum or paid for. An order blank for reprints will be sent to authors together with galley proof; a small number of reprints, varying according to the category of the contribution, will be supplied free of charge.
